

FFD 101
ART AND DESIGN STUDIO I
FALL 2015/16

EXERCISE 01

September 28th, 2015

Ex_01a (SW): 10 minutes

- On an A4 sheet, summarize what you have learned today during the class discussion on “relations” and “composition”.
- Submit your work to your group instructors.

Ex_01b (SW): 30 minutes

- Write your full name (name + surname) on a piece of paper and attach it on your upper body at a visible position.
- Look around, read/ask the names of your friends and try to discover similarities between your name and those of your classmates.
- Form groups of 5 to 7 with those whose names or surnames share something in common with yours.

Ex_01c (SW): 40 minutes

- Get your individual essay back from the instructors.
- Come together with your group members and discuss what brought you together as a group. Refer to your individual essays and consider the issues (“relations” and “composition”) raised at the beginning of class.
- Agree on certain points and try to explain them using images/visuals/sketches as well as text.
- Present your work within the boundaries of an A3-size visual field in an orderly manner.
- Make sure to include the names of the group members and the common points that brought these names together.

Ex_01d (HW): October 01st Thursday, 14.00

Make a two-dimensional composition within the boundaries of an A3 size visual field.
Use only paper products.

Material required for the next class (October 01st, Thursday):

- Sketch paper
- Black and white cartridge paper
- Glue
- Scissors
- Steel ruler
- Pencils